North vs South in Women's Double Semi-Finals

Newport Beach, CA (Tennis) -- It will be North vs South in both semi-finals in the 2010 CCCAA Women's Doubles semi-finals tomorrow afternoon. The doubles teams from Orange Coast will take on Reedley College, while a doubles tandem from De Anza will square off against Santa Monica.

In the top half of the bracket it will be Kim Ho and Melissa Boyer of Orange Coast College facing off against Yumi Justin and Amy Busch of Reedley. Ho and Boyer beat a COS team in the opening round 7-5, 6-4 then rallied past their fellow Orange Empire Conference foes from Saddleback 6-3 and 6-4 in the quarterfinals.

Facing Ho and Boyer will be Yumi Justin and Amy Busch, the Northern California doubles champions from Reedley College. Justin and Busch knocked off a team from Grossmont in round one 7-5 and 6-2, then went on to defeat a scrappy doubles duo from Irvine Valley in the final match of the night 6-4 and 6-?. Justin will also be representing Reedley in the singles semi-finals tomorrow afternoon.

In the bottom half of the bracket it will be Cartoon Phuckachampa and Diane LuTran from De Anza College (the runners up in the Northern California Championship) facing off against Tiana Lauritzen and Anastasia Elseeva of Santa Monica College. Phuckachampa and LuTran beat a duo from Mt. San Antonio in the opening round in three sets 1-6, 6-2 and 6-2, and then took care of business against Mt. San Jacinto 6-2, 6-4.

Lauritzen and Elseeva won easily in round one against Chabot 6-1 and 6-2, then took care of business against the doubles pair from Sierra College in the quarterfinals 6-4 and 6-4. Phuckachampa and Elseeva will not only see each other on the doubles court, but will also face off with each other before that when they meet up in the semi-finals of the singles championships.

Doubles play is set to start at 3:30 PM.
