Cypress was led by double-double performances from Marina Samoa with 16 kills and 14 digs and Katie Saavedra with 13 kills and 10 digs.

The Cypress won the defensive battle, 60-47, on digs. Madison Moss recorded 17 digs and Giajaida Vargas set 34 assists. For Santa Rosa, Liz Tomforde and Danielle Healis each had 9 kills with Healis hitting .474 (no errors, 19 attempts) and adding 4 block assists. Chelsea McCown made a match-high 18 digs.

Quotebook: Cypress Coach Nancy Welliver: "We're a similar team to the one from five years ago because we have two big bomber outsides. The one thing about the team we have now is we're scrappy. We somehow are able to get to balls that should have fallen in. We just find a way to keep it in play."
