

2001 Hyundai California Community College
Baseball Championships
@ John Eules Ball Park
Fresno City College
Fresno, California

The Final Four baseball teams are scheduled to take batting practice at John Eules Ball Park on Friday, May 25 in the following order as set up by Jerry White, Tournament Director:

- 12 noon Cuesta College “Cougars”
- 1 p.m. Sacramento City College “Panthers”
- 2 p.m. Fresno City College “Rams”
- 3 p.m. Riverside College “Tigers”

The “Sophomore Showcase” all-star game, sponsored by the California Community College Baseball Coaches Association, will be played at Eules starting at 7 p.m. This game features 32 sophomore players, (16 Northern Calif., 16 Southern Calif.) from teams which did not make the Final Four.

Former Napa Valley baseball coach Matt Stewart will coach the North squad and the South team will be coached by former Palomar coach Bob Vetter.

Congratulations to the CCCBCA Hall of Fame inductees for 2001:

Bob Nickerson, Gavilan College
Jerry Weinstein, Sacramento City College
