

Golden West, Pierce Qualify for 2000 Hyundai-California Men's Volleyball Cha

Posted on: Apr 27 2000 1:39PM

Golden West and Los Angeles Pierce College will advance to Friday's (April 28) Hyundai-C Community College Men's Volleyball Championship Tournament at Irvine Valley College a their regional playoff matches at home Tuesday night (April 25).

Golden West (13-4), winners of the last five consecutive state men's volleyball titles, will fac Coast Conference champion Long Beach City (13-3) in the first semifinal match Friday at 4: semifinals will continue at 7 p.m. with Pierce (13-4) taking on Orange Empire Conference cl Grossmont (15-1). The winners will play Saturday (April 29) at 7 p.m. for the Hyundai-Calif championship.

The Rustlers, who finished in a second-place tie during the Orange Empire Conference regul enjoyed an easy 15-4, 15-1, 15-11 victory over Santa Barbara (10-7) in the regionals. Pierce, second in the South Coast Conference during the regular season, had a much tougher time of from behind to knock off Orange Coast, 8-15, 15-13, 11-15, 15-10, 15-11. The Brahmas trail (12-5) late in game two before rallying to even the match.