

COA Women's Volleyball Championship*December 9-11, 2005*Selland Arena, Fresno, CA*An official event of the 2005-06*COA Championship Festival*presented by US Bank*Delta, Orange Coast and El Camino Survive Day 2

FRESNO - Top seeds Orange Coast and San Joaquin Delta will be joined by El Camino on the final day of the 2005-06 Community Colleges Commission on Athletics Women's Volleyball Championships presented by U.S. Bank in the Orange Coast (25-0) advanced to tomorrow's state championship game to be staged at 1 p.m. The Pirates knocked out the afternoon winner's bracket contest and will take on the winner of Delta and El Camino after the two square off at 11

Coast had its season-long 73-game winning streak snapped in game two against the Mustangs, but pulled out the win to return to the state title game for the first time since 2001. A new champion will be crowned after 12-time defender Golden West was eliminated in the first round of the Southern California regionals.

El Camino stayed alive with back-to-back five-game wins over West Valley and then L.A. Pierce to stay alive with a 3-2 win over the first two days. Orange Coast and Delta won morning matches over Pierce and El Camino, respectively, to

-Eric Montgomery for the COA