

Santa Rosa, CA - After the first day of the California Community College Athletic Association Wrestling State Championships, the defending state champions, Fresno City College, hold a 17 point lead over Sacramento City at Santa Rosa Junior College. The second day of the state championships will begin Saturday at 10:00 a.m. The Rams have all 10 wrestlers who are in line to be placers, with nine of them competing in the semi-finals, with Sac City close behind with six. Fresno City has compiled 55.5 team points after the first day, followed by Sac City with 38.5, with West Hills College in third place with 34.5 team points.

Rams head coach Paul Keysaw is looking to be the sole leader of career California Community College wrestling state championships with seven. Last year, Keysaw tied former San Bernardino Valley College wrestling Coach Robert Smith in career titles at six, where they currently stand. Keysaw won three state titles while coaching at Moorpark College and has won titles in 2006, 2008 and 2010 at Fresno City.

For complete results, go to <http://www.trackwrestling.com/tw/Login.jsp>.

To watch live action of the final day of the tournament, go to <http://www.ustream.tv/channel/california-community-college-wrestling-state-championship>.